The Republican voters of Centre County will meet at the regular places for holding the general election, in their respective districts, on SATURDAY, THE 24TH DAY OF AUGUST, 1872, to elect delegates to the Republican County Convention, which will be held in the Republican Wigwam, at BELLEFONTE, on WEDNESDAY, THE 28TH DAY OF AUGUST, AT 2 O'CLOCK, P. M., said Convention to place in nomination candidates for the following offices, to be voted for at the coming October Election:

One candidate for High Sheriff.
One candidate for the Legislature.
One candidate for Prothonotary.
One candidate for Register, &c.
One candidate for Recorder, &c.
One candidate for County Commissioner.
One candidate for Coroner.
One candidate for County Auditor.

The Delegates thus elected will come prepared to recommend and appoint the Vigilance Committees for their respective districts.

E. M. BLANCHARD,
Chairman Republican Co. Committee.

A. G. CURTIN.

The Watchman and sundry other Democratic-Greeley-Mongrel sheets published in Pennsylvania, in order to manufacture a little enthusiasm for their rapidly sinking and hopeless cause, are constantly harping the malicious slander that our fellow-townsman, A. G. Curtin, will, in a short time, return from Russia to his own loved home and State to take the stump for Greeley, and the miserable rebel sympathiser, Buckalew.

Republicans of Centre, give no heed to this slander, for we can view it in no other light than a base slander. What! Can any, will any, of the true friends of ex-Gov. Curtin,—the Soldier's Friend,—believe for one moment that he will sacrifice his life-long convictions, desert his old and fast friends, and oppose Gen. Hartranft, the noble and brave soldier, or Gen. Grant, under whom he has held for the last three years, one of the most honorable and lucrative offices in his gift?

It may suit men of small calibre to pursue a game like this. It may be in harmony with the erratic and unstable character of Horace Greeley, the vengeful nature of Sumner, and a few other and lesser lights, like Lyman Trumbull, Aleck McClure, Senator Fenton, Carl Schurz, and last, but not least, Jas. M. Ashley, but it can never be in accord or harmony with the nature, the patriot heart, or the honest convictions of A. G. Curtin.

"Cease viper you bite a file." Gov. Curtin will, when he comes home, rest assured, throw the whole weight of his character and burning eloquence into the hottest of the battle for Hartranft and Grant.

Bah! The idea of Gov. Curtin working with John W. Forney and A. K. McClure to beat Hartranft is simply ridiculous.

Rest assured that "Our Andy" will be found working and fighting with Gen. Dix, and his language will be, "if any man attempts to haul down the American Flag, shoot him on the spot."

It is a poor way for the Democrats to bolster up their weak and dilapidated cause; and mean, in every sense of the word thus to attempt to injure the character of a man who is absent,—not here to speak for himself.

When Gov. Curtin does arrive, and when he does speak, it will be in "thoughts that will speak, and words that will burn" in favor of the Republi party, God and the Right, Grant and Hartranft.

THE Miners' Journal, Pottsville, says: "We have the assurance of his neighbors that Buckalew is very unpopular at his home among his own people, and that he will run behind his ticket in his own town, and several hundred behind in the county. He has no sympathy with the workingmen, and in fact, none in common with the mass of the people. How a man stands at home is a good criterion of his qualities, and in this respect General Hartranft is in marked contrast to Buckalew, as he will run ahead of Democrats there, who admire the man for his personal qualities, will vote for him."

For the REPUBLICAN.

MILESBURG, Aug. 11, 1872.

COL. W. W. BROWN:

Dear Sir:—We, the undersigned, have noticed with pleasure your name mentioned as a candidate for Congress. We wish to know whether you are in earnest in the matter. YOUR name has been brought forward by many prominent Republicans in various portions of the county. We, of Boggs and Milesburg, most heartily endorse the motion of our brethren of other parts of the county, feeling confident that our interest would be safe in the hands of Col. Brown as our representative in Congress. If the move is in accordance with your wishes, please let us know, and oblige

Very respectfully yours,
WM. GALBRAITH,
P. H. HAUPT,
HENRY P. TRCZIYULNY,
R. BEERLY,
WHARTON MORRIS,
Z. D. MILES,
JOS. S. SMITH,
DAN'L P. SHOPE.

GENTLEMEN:

In reply to your kind letter, and to others containing similar interrogations, I have the honor to state that, with the announcement of my name as a candidate for Congress, I had no knowledge until it was brought to the office for publication. It was, therefore, as you will perceive, an honor unsolicited by me at this time; and one of which I feel entirely unworthy. I am, however, in the hands of my friends, and can, therefore, say that I AM A CANDIDATE at THEIR earnest solicitation, and pledge myself in this public and friendly manner that, if nominated and elected to the high post of honor, I will perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability.

In another column of the REPUBLICAN, you will see, gentlemen, that I have a competitor, in the person of Jas. Milliken Esq. of Bellefonte. While we pledge the use of our columns for any communication his friends may wish to insert in the furtherance of his interest, we cannot advocate his election editorially, nor do we propose to use the REPUBLICAN in our own behalf. In short we propose to treat him fairly and if he should, in the wisdom of the people, obtain the nomination we pledge him our most cordial support.

W. W. BROWN.

BELLEFONTE, PA., Aug. 10, '72.

COL. J. G. KURTZ:

Dear Sir:—The undersigned members of the Republican party of Centre county, having, during many years, observed your earnestness, zeal and ability in the advocacy of the political principles which we espouse, both as an editor and a private citizen, and being desirous that you should receive some recognition for your services and worth, respectfully urge you to permit us to use your name as a candidate before our approaching County Convention for nomination as our candidate for Assembly.

In the present state of politics, when our long time adversaries, the old Democracy, have chosen as their chief standard bearer for the Presidential campaign one among the highest in the Republican ranks, thus presenting to the people two Republicans from which to choose a President of the United States, it is not unreasonable to suppose that there will be such a general abandonment of party association as might result in the election of a Republican to the Legislature, even from old Centre.

It is with this hope we call upon you to allow us the privilege of nominating you.

The honors and rewards of a party should be bestowed upon those who have performed the labor of the party, especially when such justice would secure the utmost competency, as, we may be permitted to say, would be the case, should we be so fortunate as to make you the Representative of our county at Harrisburg. Trusting that this communication will receive your favorable consideration and an affirmative response, we remain

Very respectfully, &c.,
MANY CITIZENS.

OUR Democratic cotemporaries, says the State Journal, are in a quandary how to adjust Mr. Buckalew's position on the liquor question that he may suffer damage neither from temperance men nor from men who traffic in the ardent. Of course the Democracy are prepared to swear Mr. Buckalew to either side of the question, just as the interest of the voter may demand. That's Democratic policy. It has a face for all sections and a promise for all men—and is ready to betray all, just as occasion demands.

NORTH CAROLINA for GRANT

Glory Enough for One Day.

THE GREELEYITES "DOOMED!"

NOW LET OUR ROOSTER CROW!

Caldwell, Rep., Elected Governor by from 1,000 to 3,000 Majority!

LET THAT "SAME OLD COON SHOW HIS FACE!

And with his thumb placed cunningly on the end of his nose, give us a chant to the air of "King of the Cannibal Island."

Oh, have you heard the news of late
That's come up from the old North State,
A harbinger of the impending fate
Awaiting Free Love Horace?
They fought the fight, and fought it well,
And then sent home the tale to tell,
Of the dreadful fate that just befel
The friends of Free Love Horace.
CHORUS—Hokey, pokey, winky wum,
Oh will your blunders ever be done,
Till we send you to Hotel de Bum,
Foolish, peevish Horace.

MERRIMAN IS NOWHERE!

THE WHOLE REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET PROBABLY ELECTED.

THE LEGISLATURE, IN WHICH LAST YEAR THE DEMOCRATS HAD 44 MAJORITY, IS SO CLOSE AS TO BE DOUBTFUL.

ONE REPUBLICAN MEMBER OF CONGRESS GAINED!

We were fully prepared for the loss of North Carolina, and had it gone Democratic we should not have been disappointed or terrified, knowing that the election of Grant was safe enough without the electoral vote of that State. But having achieved a great victory there against the combined efforts of Democrats and Liberal Republicans, and in spite of wholesale fraud and corruption, we must be permited to rejoice. The Democrats took their turn to crow rather prematurely. It is now our turn, and we mean to enjoy it. The election of a Governor (perhaps the whole State ticket); the gain of over twenty members of the Legislature, and one member of Congress, is something worth crowing over, and therefore we have brought out our gun and coon, with permission to "go it on the loud." And, as our Democratic friends will see, they are doing it "with a looseness."

The Republican party of North Carolina in the contest that has just closed (says the Washington Republican), had to contend against fearful odds. In the first place, there was a strongly fortified and entrenched enemy, with nearly five thousand majority to overcome. In the next, the opposition made every effort that it was possible to make, not only to retain their ascendancy, but to, if possible, add fresh laurels to their recent triumphs.

The Liberal Republicans and the Democrats combined made a desperate effort to carry the State, judging that a victory there would have a moral influence on the coming elections in the Northern States, and give an impetus to the hopeless canvass upon which they have entered. The State was thoroughly canvassed from one end to the other; money was lavishly spent; the Schurzes and Tipton's and the M'Clure's were sent amid its pine tops to poison the people with the vilest calumnies and misrepresentations of the National Administration. We will not deny that on the other hand the Republican party strained every nerve to secure a victory. But the odds were from the beginning against our success.

The Democracy were thoroughly organized, and determined at any cost to win. To that end, the practiced ballot-box stuffers of Tammany hall were sent into the State by their unscrupulous political associates in the North; the murderous gangs of the Ku Klux were sent upon their midnight missions of intimidation; there was no means left untried to carry the State.

In the Old North State Liberal Republicanism has been routed horse, foot and artillery. North Carolina is the forerunner of victories innumerable in the North, the East and the West for the great party of freedom and of loyalty. The verdict that she sends to us will be repeated in nearly all the States of the Union next November. That she will then send us a decision ten times more decisive we have not the least doubt. To the Republicans of North Carolina all honor and all praise.

JAMES MILLIKEN FOR CONGRESS.

The period approaches when the Republican party of this Congressional District, will be called upon to place in nomination a candidate for representatives in our National Legislative Assembly, in view of which, you will please permit the suggestion of the name of James Milliken, of Centre County, as a suitable person, to be nominated, and if nominated, certainly to be elected. In this community, Mr. Milliken, needs no encomium. His truthfulness, honor, integrity and usefulness, are here too well known. Naturally gifted beyond his fellows—he has by study and travel, as well as by acute observation, improved and extended his knowledge, until few are his equal, and none superior, in all that pertains to a successful, live and energetic representative American citizen. A shrewd business man, of fine personal address—a capital conversationalist, and consummate and eloquent public speaker, the writer knows of no one so well qualified to do honor to the Commonwealth, and reflect credit upon his immediate constituency as Mr. Milliken, and who if nominated and consenting to accept the nomination, will assuredly be elected.

THE good results of the protective policy, in stimulating manufacturing industry, and consequently given employment to capital and profitable labor to skilled and unskilled workmen, are very forcibly illustrated in the business statistics of Passaic county New Jersey. In 1860 that county contained nine establishments for the manufacture of iron, producing goods to the value of $9,859,985. In 1870 the town of Paterson alone contained eighteen establishments, producing goods valued at $5,685,449. In 1860, Paterson had four silk establishments. In 1870, it had twenty-three producing goods to the amount of $3,275,394. The secret of this extraordinary prosperity consists in the simple fact that from 1860 to 1870 we have had a higher tariff than ever before. In our own city there never was greater activity in the manufacture of iron than at the present time, while other interests are prosperous in a high degree. When were such results ever achieved under a low tariff or through free trade?—Pittsburg Commercial.

——General Joe Geiger, well known as a prominent Democratic stumper of Ohio, has taken the stump for Grant. He is a protectionist, and can't go for a man who smothered his protection convictions for the Democratic vote. No crow for Joe.

THE LETTER OF GEN. DIX.

HIS REASONS FOR GOING FOR GRANT.

The following is the letter, in full, of Gen. Dix, giving his reasons for supporting Gen. Grant:—

WEST HAMPTON, July 27, 1872—DEAR SIR—Your letter of the 13th inst., asking my aid to procure a speaker for a Greeley meeting at Hancock, was sent to me while I was in New England, and I have been unable until now to acknowledge its reception. I do not understand on what ground you considered yourself authorized to address such a request to me. If you had been familiar with the course of my public life, and equally so with Mr. Greeley's, you could not have supposed me capable of advocating his election to the office of President of the United States without imputing to me the utter abandonment of all political principle. I am opposed to Mr. Greeley:

First—Because I believe him to be as "unstable as water," perpetually floundering (to carry out the Scriptural figure) amid the surges of opinion, and deficient in all the requisites essential to a firm, steady and consistent administration of the government.

Second—Because he has usually been found among the most extreme ultraists on the great questions of political and social duty which have been brought under public discussion during the last quarter of a century.

Third—Because he has been the advocate (and in this instance persistently) of that most unjust and unequal commercial system which is destroying our mercantile and shipping interests, and heaping up enormous accumulations of wealth in the hands of the protected classes, to the oppression and impoverishment of others.

Fourth—Because he is associated, in relations more or less intimate, with some of the chief plunderers of the city of New York, justly warranting the apprehension that, through his complicity or his facile disposition, the same system of fraud and corruption which has disgraced the municipal government of this city may be carried to more infamous extremes in the administration of the federal government; and,

Fifth—Because in the darkest hour of the country's peril, when a traitorous combination had been formed to overthrow the government, he openly counseled the cowardly policy of non-resistation of the Union, whenever the cotton States should make up their minds to go.

The coalition which has been formed to promote the election is one of the most extraordinary in the history of parties, in respect both to the discordant elements it embraces and the surrender of principles it involves.

The Cincinnati Convention, called to bring before the people important measures of reform, nominated him, greatly to the surprise of the whole country, knowing him, in regard to one of those measures, to be an implacable opponent nominated him, too, against the wishes and judgment of the chief promoters of the movement, who accepted him, either with an avowed or ill-concealed disgust, which would be far more creditable to their feelings if the act of acceptance were not irreconcilable with their principles.

The Democratic Convention at Baltimore indorsed and commended him to the support of their party—not as the exponent of any principles they have professed, or any measures they have advocated, but as a known and bitter opponent of both—the man who, perhaps, of all others has been the most malignant opponent of the Democracy, impeaching its integrity, traducing its motives and villifying its character.

The adoption of such a man as their candidate for the Chief Magistracy of the Union is the most conspicuous abandonment of political principles known to party contests. It remains to be seen whether the great body of the Democratic voters, and the true friends of reform, can be made parties to this unscrupulous coalition between political leaders.

That General Grant has committed mistakes his most sincere friends admit. But if his errors had been fourfold more numerous he would, in my opinion, be a much better Chief Magistrate than Greely. He has in that capacity done much for which he deserves the thanks of the country. Above all, he has kept it at peace, notwithstanding the efforts of sensation journals and popularity seeking politicians to provoke hostilities with Spain on the question of Cuba, and with Great Britain on the Alabama claims and the fisheries.

If, regardless of these titles to the approval of his fellow-citizens, and of his invaluable services during the late civil war, they should set him aside for Mr. Greeley; if the latter, a mere erratic politician, untried in any important public trust, should be elevated to the Chief Magistracy of the Union—a Union which would not now exist is his counsels had been followed—and if the man who, of all others, has done the most to preserve it should be discarded for a successor so ill qualified and so unscrupulously nominated and sustained, the example would be most deplorable in its influence on all high motives to political action and justify the most painful forebodings as to the future. I am respectfully yours,

JOHN A. DIX.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—California expects to send 5,000 tons of butter and cheese to China annually.

—The game law is being enforced in Rockland county, Va. A negro was lately fined $10 for killing two partridges.

—Jack Groves, a well-known negro "character" of Portland, died last week at the extraordinary age of 113.

—On the line of the Bloomington and Mississippi road 2,000,000 bushels of corn are seeking shipment.

—There are one thousand marriageable young ladies on the island of Nantucket, and only one hundred young men.

—Col. J. A. Stockton of Pennsylvania, who recently escaped from the Vermont Insane Asylum, after a confinement of three years, has been adjudged sane.

—The business of manufacturing safes has grown up in the United States from a matter of a few thousand in 1849 to $9,000,000 in 1870. A safe business.

—An effort is making to restore the ancient Pohick church, near Fairfax, Virginia, at whose altar Washington knelt. Only $3,000 are needed for the purpose.

—A woman in Fon du Lac, Wisconsin, has sent the saloon keepers there a bill of $200, being the amount legally due her for a pounding inflicted by her husband.

—An eccentric Bucks-county (Pa.) farmer has about four hundred tons of hay that has been accumulated for fifteen or twenty years, stacked upon his farm, and which he refuses to sell.

—A suit was the other day concluded in an Illinois court, the original damages in which were laid at twenty-five dollars, but on which the extended litigation entailed costs exceeding $5,000.

—An Italian in San Francisco sought a marriage license, but got into the wrong office and procured a dog license instead. The error was discovered by his friends before the wedding came off.

—A St. Louis grain elevator company has given an order for a belt which is to be the largest in the world. It is to be four feet in width, 276 feet long, and weighs 2,225 pounds.

—A German banker has bought of the St. Paul and Sioux City Railroad Company $1,300,000 worth of land, mostly in Minahan county, Minnesota, $1,000,000 worth of which is intended for a German colony.

—Andrew Keene, son of Richard L. Keene, of Callaway county, Missouri, was killed last week by a train of cars near Columbia. He was driving a wagon loaded with flour across the track, when the locomotive, going at full speed, struck the wagon, killing young Keene and one of the mules.

—The machine shop of the Harrisburg Company's new car works, just rebuilt, was burned on Saturday night a week. The loss is about $50,000. Four firemen, named Kohler, Johnson, Maloney, and McAleer, were badly hurt by falling walls. The works were insured for $45,000.

—An iron mountain, which is represented to be as large, and the ore as pure, as that of the famous Iron Mountain of Missouri, has just been discovered in California, on the line of the contemplated Atlantic and Pacific road, and near enough to be utilized in the city of San Francisco.

—From an abstract of the census returns of 1870 we have some interesting facts concerning sunstrokes. The number of fatal cases that year was 397. Geographically the belt of Central States was the most fatal region. From this it will be seen that cases of sunstroke are comparatively rare in the western and southern sections of the country.

—Disastrous floods have occurred in Yorkshire, Lancashire, and other counties of England, causing loss of life and immense destruction of property. One ghastly incident is reported from Manchester, where a graveyard was submerged, and many bodies were washed away. About fifty have been recovered.

—A monster fish, or devil, of leviathan proportions, sporting in the waters of the Kennebec river, is said to be astonishing the natives. He only shows himself occasionally, and first appeared to an astonished river driver, who dropped his pick-pole and took to the woods. He describes the animal as being of proportions hardly less than the ordinary whale.

THE HOUSEHOLD ANGLE.

Her name shines now in bannered field,
Where right and wrong so boldly war;
Nor rings her voice in any cause
Which men and women battle for;
Yet in her presence, subtle, sweet,
You long to kneel and kiss her feet.

No wondrous romance wreathes her life;
Nor hath she led a martyr twain;
Nor beautiful, nor rich, is she,
But poor—and some would call her plain,
Yet in her dear eyes you see
A beauty shining constantly.

No silken robe enfolds her form;
Nor dainty leisure hath her hands;
Her jewels are a simple ring.

Another Leaf From History.

To be Read with the Thompson and Holcombe Letter.

The Men Whom Buckalew Conferred With, and Their Object.

In connection with the Jacob Thompson report and the letters from Holcombe, C. C. Clay, and other ex-Confederates, the following testimony given by Godfrey, J. Hyans, now of Washington, upon the trial of Mr. Lincoln's assassins, in regard to the attempt to introduce pestilence throughout the North, will be read with interest. The testimony shows that Thompson, Clay and Holcombe were all acquainted with the plans for spreading contagion.

The testimony as here given will be found upon page 54 of Benn Pitman's report of the trial:

Godfrey Joseph Hyans sworn: "I am a native of Londen, England, but have lived South nine or ten years. During the last year I have lived in Toronto, Canada. About the middle of December, 1863, I made the acquaintance of Dr. Blackburn. I was introduced to him by the Rev. Stuart Robinson at the Queen's Hotel in Toronto. I knew him by sight previously but before that had no conversation with him. I knew that he was a Confederate, and was working for the rebellion. Dr. Blackburn was then about to take South some men who had escaped from the Federal service, and I asked to go with him.

"He asked me if I wanted to go South and serve the Confederacy. I said I would He then told me to come up stairs; he wanted to speak to me. He took me up stairs to a private room, and pledged his word as a Free Mason, and offered his hand in friendship that he would never deceive me. He said he wanted to confide to me an expedition. I told him I would not care if I did. He said I would make an independent fortune by it—at least $100,000—and get more honor and glory to my name than Gen. Lee, and be of more assistance to the Confederate government than if I was to take one hundred thousand soldiers to reinforce Gen. Lee. I pledged my word that I would go, if I could do any good. He told me he wanted me to take a quantity of clothing, consisting of shirts, coats and under clothing into the States, and dispose of them at auction. I was to take them to Washington City, to Norfolk, and as far South as I could possible go where the Federal government held possession and had the most troops, and to sell them in a hot day or of a night; that it did not matter what money I got for the clothing; I had just to dispose of them in the best markets, where there were most troops, and where they would be most effective, and come away.

"He told me I should have $100,000 for my services; $6,000 of it directly after I returned to Toronto, but he said that would not be a circumstance to what I would get. He said I might made ten times $100,000.

"I was to stay in Toronto, and go on with my legitimate business until I heard from him. He told me to keep quiet, and if I moved anywhere I was to inform Dr. Stuart Robinson where I went to, and he would telegraph for me, or write to me through him. Sometime in the month of May, 1864, I went to my work and worked on until the 8th of June, 1864; it was on a Saturday night. I had been out to take a pair of boots to a customer of mine and when I returned home my wife had a letter for me from Dr. Blackburn, which Dr. Stuart Robinson had left in passing there. I read the letter and went out to see Dr. Robinson. I asked him what I was to do about it. He said he did not know anything at all about it; that he did not want to furnish any means to commit an overt act against the United States government. He advised me to borrow from Mr. Preston, who keeps a tobacco manufactory in Toronto, enough money to take me to Montreal, which I did. I went down to Montreal, and there got money from Mr. Slaughter according to the directions contained in the letter. The letter instructed me to proceed from Montreal to Halifax to meet Dr. Blackburn, it was dated 'Havana, May 10, 1864.' I went to Halifax, to a gentleman by the name of Alexander H. Beith, Jr., and remained under his care until Dr. Blackburn arrived in the steamer Alphia, on the 12th of July, 1864. When Dr. Blackburn arrived he sent to the Farmers' Hotel, where I was staying, for me. I went to see him and he told me that the goods were on board the steamer Alphia, and that the second officer on the steamer would go with me and get the goods off, as they had been smuggled in from Bermuda. Mr. Hill, the second officer, told me to get an express wagon, and take it down to Cunard's steamboat wharf. I did so, and there got eight trunks and a valise. I was directed to take them to my hotel and put them in a private room. I put them in Mr. Doran's private sitting room.

"I then went around to Dr. Blackburn, and told him I had got the goods off the steamer. He told me that the five trunks, tied up with ropes, were the ones for me to take, and asked me if I would take the valise into the States, and send it by express, with an accompanying letter, as a donation to President Lincoln. I objected to taking it, and refused to do it. I then took three of the trunks and the valise around to his hotel. He was then staying at the Halifax Hotel. The trunks had Spanish marks on them, and he told me to scrape them off, and that Mr. Hill would go with me the next morning and make arrangements with some captain of a vessel to take them. There were two vessels there, running to Boston. The next morning I went down with Mr. Hill to the vessels.

"Mr. Hill had a private conversation with Capt. McGregor, the captain of the first vessel, to whom we applied; and he refused to take the goods. We then went to see Capt. John O'Brien, of the Halifax. Hill told him that I had some presents in my trunks, consisting of silks, satin dresses, &c., that I wanted to take to my friends. The captain and Mr. Hill had a private conversation, and when the captain came out he consented to take them. I was to give him a twenty dollar gold piece for smuggling them in. I put them on board the vessel that day, and he stowed them away. The vessel laid five days off Boston before he could get a chance to get them off, but he finally succeeded in getting them off, and expressed them to Philadelphia, where I received them and brought them to Baltimore. I then took out the goods, which were very much rumpled, smoothed them out, bought some new trunks and repacked them, and brought them to this city.

"Dr. Blackburn, by way of caution, asked me before leaving, if I had had the yellow fever, and on my saying 'No,' he said: 'You must have a preventive against catching it. You must get some camphor and chew it and get some strong cigars, the strongest you can get, and be sure to keep gloves on when handling things.' He gave me some cigars that he said were strong enough for anything.

"When I arrived in this city, I turned over five of the trunks to Messrs. W. L. Wall & Co., commission merchants in this, city, and four to a man named Meyers, from Boston, a sutler in Sigel's or Weitzel's division. He said he had some goods that he was going to take to Newberne, N. C., and I told him that I had a lot of goods that I wanted to sell, and to make the best market I could for them, I would turn them over to him in commission. I also told him that would shortly have more, and mentioned that I had disposed of some to Wall & Co., of this city. Dr. Blackburn told me, when I was making arrangements, that I should let the parties to whom I disposed my goods know that I would have a big lot to sell, as it was in contemplation to get together about a million dollars' worth of goods, and dispose of them in this way.

Dr. Blackburn stated that his object in having these goods disposed of in different cities was to destroy the armies, or everything they came in contact with. All these goods he told me had been carefully infected in Bermuda with yellow fever, small-pox and other contagious diseases. The goods in the valise, which were intended for President Lincoln, I understood him to say had been infected both with yellow fever and small-pox. This valise I declined taking charge of, and turned over to him at the Halifax Hotel, and I afterward heard that it had been sent to the President.

"On the five trunks that I turned over to W. L. Wall & Co., I got an advance of $100. Among these five trunks there was one that was always spoken of by Blackburn to me as 'Big No. 2.' which he said I must be sure to have sold in Washington.

"On disposing of the trunks I immediately left Washington, and went straight through until I got to Hamilton, Canada. In the waiting room there I met Mr. Holcombe and Mr. Clement C. Clay. They both rose, shook hands with me, and congratulated me on my safe return and upon my making a fortune. They told me I should be a gentleman for the future, instead of a workingman and a mechanic. They seemed perfectly to understand the business in which I had been engaged. Mr. Holcombe told me that Dr. Blackburn was at the Donegana Hotel, in Montreal, and that I had better telegraph to him, stating that I had returned.

"As Dr. Blackburn had requested me to telegraph him as soon as I got into Canada, I did so, and the next night, between eleven and twelve o'clock, Dr. Blackburn came up and knocked at the door of my house. I was in bed at the time. I looked out of the window, and saw Dr. Blackburn there. Said he, 'Come down, Hyams, and open the door. You're like all damned rascals who have been doing something wrong; you're afraid the devil is after you.' He was in company with Bennett H. Young. I came down and let him in. He asked me how I had disposed of the goods, and I told him. 'Well,' said he, 'that is all right as long as big No. 2 went into Washington; it will kill them at sixty yards distance.' I then told the Doctor that everything had gone wrong at my home in my absence; that I needed some funds; that my family needed money. He said he would go to Colonel Jacob Thompson and make arrangements for me to draw upon him for any amount of money I required. He then said that the British authorities had solicited his services in attending to the yellow fever that was then raging at Bermuda, that he was going on there, and that as soon as he came back he would see me. I went up to Jacob Thompson the next morning and told him what Dr. Blackburn had said. He said, 'Yes, Dr. Blackburn had been there and had made arrangements for me to draw $100 whenever it was shown that I had made disposition of the goods according to his direction.' I told him that I needed money; that I had been so long away from home that everything I had was gone, and I wanted money to pay my rent, etc. He said, 'I will give you $50 now, but it is against Dr. Blackburn's request; when you show that you have sold the goods I will give you the balance.' He asked me to give him a receipt, which I did: 'Received of Jacob Thompson the sum of $50 on account of Dr. Blackburn.' That was about the 11th or 12th of August last. The next day I wrote to Messrs. Wall & Co., of Washington, desiring them to send an account of the sales and the balance due me. When I received their answer I took it up to show Col. Thomson. He then said he was perfectly satisfied I had done my part, and gave me a check for $50 on the Ontaria Bank, I gave him a receipt: 'Received from Jacob Thompson $100 in full on account of Dr. Luke P. Blackburn.'

"I told Jacob Thompson of the large sum which Dr. Blackburn had promised me for my services, and that he and Mr. Holcombe had both told me that the Confederate gavernment had appropriated $200,000 for the purpose of carrying it out, but he would not pay me anything more.

"When Dr. Blackburn returned from Bermuda, I wrote to him at Montreal, and told him I wanted some money, and that he ought to send me some; but he made no reply to my letter. I was then sent down to Montreal with a commission for Bennett H. Young, to be used in his defense in the St. Albans raid case. I there met Dr. Blackburn. He said I had written some hard letters to him abusing him, and that he had no money to give me. He then got into his carriage at the door, and rode off to some races, I think, and never gave me any more satisfaction.

"As I wanted money before leaving for the State, I went to the Clifton House Niagara. Dr. Blackburn told me he had no money with him then, but that he would go to Mr. Holcombe and get some as he had Confederate bonds with him. Blackburn said that when I returned he would get the money for the expedition from either Holcombe or Thompson, it did not matter which. From this, and from Holcombe and Clay both shaking hands with me, and congratulating me upon my safe return, at Hamilton, I thought, of course, they knew all about it.

"I do not know that Dr. Stuart Robinson knew of the business in which I was engaged, but he took good care of me while I was in Toronto in the fall, and until Dr. Blackburn wrote for me in the spring; and when he gave me Dr. Blackburn's letter, he told me to borrow the money of Mr. Preston to take me to Montreal, as he said he did not want to commit an overt act against the United States government himself. Mr. Preston lent me ten dollars to go to Montreal. On arriving at that place, according to the directions in Dr. Blackburn's letter, I went to Mr. Slaughter to get the means to take me to Halifax. Mr. Slaughter was short of funds, and had only $25 that he could give me. He said that I had better go to Mr. Holcombe, who was staying at the Donegana Hotel, and he would give me the balance. I went to the hotel and sent up my name. Mr. Holcombe had heard of my name, and he sent for me to come up. I told him that I wanted some money to take me to Halifax. He asked me how much I wanted. I told him as much as would make up $40. He said, 'You had better take $50;' but as I did not want that much, I only took enough to make up $40. When I came to Washington to dispose of the goods, which was on the 5th of August, 1864, I put up at the National Hotel, registered my name as J. W. Harris, under which name I did business with Wall & Co."

Wanted—A Minister.

Thriftyville wants a minister. They are looking far and near to find one; but they want the "right man." Thriftyville is not one of your old, effete, worn-out places. It is a place grown up quickly on Rapid river in the beautiful valley of Eureka. It is a very important place—standing directly over the center of the earth, so that if a hole were dug, and a stone dropped into it, it would pass through the very center of this great world. It has a growing population, and boasts of "a circle of very intelligent people." Moreover, it seems to be "the center of a great moral influence," and it now wants a minister second to none. They want to get the society out of debt, to repair the old wastes which time has already made in their half-built sanctuary to gather in the young, to "draw" a full house, and to make the concern everyway prosperous and respectable, and easy to support.

New for the qualifications desired. They are so few and simple, that "the right man" probably stands at your elbow.

He must be a man mature in intellect, and ripe in experience—and yet so young that all the young people will rush after him.

He must be quick, ardent, flashing, nervous in temperament, so that he can kindle quick and burn bright; prompt, ready, and wide-awake—and yet a man of the most consummate prudence, whose nerves shall never be unstrung nor out of tune.

He must be a man of great burning zeal, so that he can startle, arouse and kindle and move the congregation—and yet so cautious, so cool, that he is always safe, calm, self-possessed, unperturbed.

He must have the power to awaken and arouse the church—and yet be so judicious, that he can make a difference between the chaff and the wheat, and let none but real converts into the fold.

He must be strong and original in the pulpit, and bring none but beaten oil there—and yet be at leisure to receive any call, any interruption, be prepared for every occassion, and like the town pump, never sucking water, or giving out dry.

He must be a workman who shall go down deep into mines of truth, and quarry out its pillars, and set them up, and make men come and wrestle around them—and yet the most gifted man in light conversation, and on all that floats in the every-day world around him.

He must have health so that his body never wearies, his nerves never quiver—a real specimen of muscular Christianity, and yet be a hard, severe thinker, a close reasoner, and a most diligent student, getting his books from any quarter.

He must be poor in this world's goods, to show that money is not his object, and so that he can sympathize with the poor, and so that he can't help feeling humble and dependent—and yet his family must be the most hospitable, and entertain more company than any other in town; his children must be respectfully dressed; he must give away more, and more cheerfully, than any man in the place, not even excepting Esquire Rich himself; and his family must be models, in all respects, for the community.

He must be a man who can remain three years, and his congregation must hear the same voice, on the same subject several times each week—and yet he must come every time, as original, as fresh, as glowing, as it were done but once a year.

He must be able to live in a glass house, always acting in public, coming in contact with all sorts of men and of prejudices, so original that all will respect and fear him—and yet never odd, eccentric, morose, repulsive, or awry in manners. He should have the lofty attributes of an angal, with the sympathies, the gentllness, and softness of the little child.

He must be always ready, lofty, keyed up to the best possible pitch—and yet so calm in sprit, and word, and look, that nothing can disturb his repose.

He must never preach so that the people are not proud of him when they have a stranger in their pew, or so that the echo of his sermon shall not come back when he goes abroad—and yet every sermon must be so beautiful that all the young people will admire it, and wonder over it, and the little child can carry it all home, and repeat it to her grandmother.

His wife must be the model of all models. She must be young and handsome, but not indiscreet or vain. She must be worthy of the admiration of all the people, and yet think she is the humblest of all. She must watch, and discipline, and prune, and lead, and make her husband the embodiment of all excellence; but she must never be aware of her power, less she become overbearing. She must be the model of a lady, have a fair face and white hands, though compelled to do all the work of her family. She must be ready to meet everybody with a smile, take her hands from the flour at any moment, wear a checkered apron, and still be dressed like a lady. Her face must never be otherwise than cheerful, her head must do its aching in secret, and she must give none occasion to call her extravagant, or to call her mean. She must be able to alter the same dress four times, turning it thrice, and fitting it to a smaller child each time. She will be expected to be the very life of the dorcas society, the most zealous member of the all-labor society, the very backbone of the maternal association, the warm leader in the female prayer-meeting, the head and mover in the reading circle, and the visitor-general of the poor.

The minister must be of sound doctrine, able to lay his hands on the naked foundations of truth, to fortify and defend the hill of Zion—and yet must never preach the old-fashioned doctrines. They are not spicy. They are not taking. They will never "draw" a full house.

It is rather desirable that he should be a pious man, and one who loves his Master—and yet, as this article, piety, has not acquired great value in Thirftyville, it would be well for him not to make that too obtruse.

Such, in few words, is the man they want for Thriftyville. If they can light on him, they will pay $800 annually! and not let it run behind unreasonably. This is not, to be sure, half what their clerks receive, but think that the minister, if he be only the "right" man, can "manage" to live on it. Who is ready?

N. B.—All applicants must put an extra postage stamp in the letter, or it will receive no attention.

P. S.—A lady who heard this document read before it was sent to press, reminds me of one most important omission, the absence of which would spoil all the above. He must not only preach better than any man in the town, "our enemies themselves being judges," but he must visit from house to house from morning to night, like Mr.—— of our town, whom everybody knows has nothing else to do, and who is thankful to any gossip-monger who will assist him "to give time a shove."

A Beautiful Extract.

"Generation after generation," says a fine writer, "have felt as we feel now and their lives were as active as our own. They passed away like a vapor, while Nature wore the same aspect of beauty as when her Creator commanded her to be. The Heavens shall be as bright over our graves as they are now around our path.

"The world will have the same attraction for our offspring yet unborn that she had for ourselves, and that she now has for our children. Yet a little while and all will have happened. The throbbing heart will be stilled and we shall be at rest. Our funeral will wend its way, and prayers will be said, and our friends will all return, and we shall be left behind in silence and darkness for the worm. And it may be for a short time we shall be spoken of, but the things of life will creep in, our names will soon be forgotten. Days will continue to move on, and laughter and song will be heard in the room in which we died; and the eye that mourned for us will be dried and glisten with joy; and even our children will cease to think of us, and will not remember to lisp our names. Then shall we have become, in the touching language of the Psalmist, "forgotten and out of mind."

THE most influential Roman Catholic newspaper in the United States is the New York Freeman's Journal, edited by James A McMaster. It has usually given a passive support to Democratic nominees, but the nomination of Greeley is too much for it, and Mr. McMaster on all occasions makes known his opposition to it. In the issue of the Journal for the current week he assails the nomination in a brief article, concluding as follows:

"But it seems to us clear that it is on the other side, that the shrewd and hard measures of political success are understood. Sumner insists on a distinct and irrevocable bargain. Democratic leaders at large are going on "confidence." A wiser statesman than we know where to find now, said that "confidence is a plant of slow growth." But, compared with the growth of Democratic confidence in Greeley, the gourd-vine of Jonas "that grew up in a night and perished in a night," was of retarded development. The squash-vine under which so many Democrats are taking shelter, is not a product of nature but work of galvanism."

SOUTHERN SENTIMENT.

We have been permitted to copy an extract from a private letter received by a gentleman in that city, from a thorough-going Unionist in Alabama. The latter is dated Marion, Alabama, July 4, 1872:

"We have a majority of 2,600, and we expect to increase it to 3,000 or 3,500 in November. There is much discontent among the rank and file of the Democracy in this section of Alabama at the thought of having to support their ancient enemy, Horace Greeley. Very many openly declare that they will not vote for him under any circumstances. A most intelligent Democrat told me yesterday that at least one-third of his party in this large and populous county would not support Greeley, though nominated at Baltimore. Here was the cradle and hot-bed of secession, and the old secession leaders are all, to a man, rampant for Greeley. Their idea is to beat Grant and the Republican party this time, and the so-called Liberal Republicans hereafter, and thus install the disunion, secession, Democratic party in power. Their, idea is to divide and then conquer."—Milton-ian.

THE REPUBLICAN FOR THE CAMPAIGN. CLUBS! CLUBS!

We are now about commencing another great battle for the salvation of the Union, and perpetuity of free Government, of Republican Institutions. We have the same enemy to contend against, the same party and faction that trampled the old Flag—the Star Spangled Banner, under their feet in 1861, and that fired upon Fort Sumpter. We punished them then for their treason, we must not permit them now, since they have assumed another shape, to secure through the ballot box, what they failed to secure through four years of bloody war—the dissolution of the Union, and the formation of a Southern Confederacy.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty." We must be active.

We must be watchful and ever on the alert. We must circulate papers and documents in order that every voter may fully understand the issues and vote intelligently in the approaching fall elections.

To this end we offer the Bellefonte Republican from the 1st of August to the 1st day of December, 1872—four months—for 60 cents to single subscribers, or to clubs of five, ten, twenty or more at 50 cents per copy.

Now, let our active energetic friends bestir themselves and send in large clubs from every township and Borough in the county. In every case the money must accompany the order. Get up the clubs. Send in the names and money.

Horace Greeley, it has been proven beyond doubt, gave Seymour and the Democratic leaders assurance that he favored the payment of pensions to disabled Confederate soldiers by the United States Government, thus placing the traitor on the same footing with the patriot, and offering a premium on treason. Greeley has not denied the charge because it is true and the veracity of the witnesses is more to be trusted than his own or that of his friends.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

---

Probably the best commentary—at once the most epigrammatic and comprehensive—that has yet been made on the Greeley movement, was the remark of an old lady who resided on the Staten Island coast, where discharges of artillery are used to raise the bodies of drowned persons to the surface. When she heard the firing of the guns over the Baltimore nominations, she said: "There they go again, trying to bring up another dead body." This is the Greeley Iliad in a nut-shell.

---

Professor Waterhouse, in a recent paper on the resources of Missouri, gives the following description of the iron mountain for which the State is famous: Shephard Mountain is 600 feet high. The ore contains a large percentage of iron. The height of Pilot Knob above the Mississippi river is 1,118 feet. Its base, 581 feet from the summit, is 360 acres. The upper section of 141 feet is judged to contain 14,000,000 tons of ore. The elevation of Iron Mountain is 228 feet, and the area at its base 500 acres. The solid contents of the cone are 230,000,000 tons. It is thought that every foot beneath the surface will yield 3,000,000 tons of ore. At the depth of 150 feet the artesian auger was still penetrating solid ore. These mountains contain enough ore above the surface to afford for 200 years an annual supply of 1,000,000 tons. The iron is strong tough, and fibrous."

SUMNER SCATHED.

WITHERING REBUKE FROM SPEAKER BLAINE—PLAIN WORDS ALL COLORED MEN WILL UNDERSTAND—PERSONAL SPITE AND POLITICAL AMBITION—CHARLES SUMNER CO-OPERATING WITH JEFF DAVIS—HORACE GREELEY LEAGUING WITH TAMMANY.

Washington, August 2.—The following letter was handed to Senator Sumner, to-day:

Augusta, Me., July 31.

Hon. Charles Sumner, United States Senator:

Dear Sir:—Your letter, published in the papers of this morning, will create profound pain and regret among your former political friends throughout New England. Your power to injure yourself was not fully exercised until you announced open alliance with Southern secessionists in their efforts to destroy the Republican party of the nation.

I have but recently read with much interest the circumstantial and minute account given by you, in the fourth volume of House works, of the manner in which you were struck down in the Senate chamber, in 1856, for defending the rights of the negro. The Democratic party throughout the South, and according to your own showing, to some extent in the North also, approved of that assault upon you. Mr. Toombs, of Georgia, openly announced his approval of it in the Senate, and Jefferson Davis, four months after its occurrence, wrote a letter to South Carolina, in fulsome eulogy of Brooks for having so nearly taken your life. It is safe to say every man in the South who rejoiced over the attempt to murder you was afterward found in the rebel conspiracy to murder the nation. It is still safer to say that every one of them who survives is to-day your fellow laborer in support of Horace Greeley. In 1856 he would indeed have been a rash prophet who predicted your fast alliance sixteen years after with Messrs. Toombs and Davis in their efforts to reinstate their own party in power. In all the startling mutations of American politics nothing so marvelous has ever occurred as the fellowship of Robert Toombs, Jefferson Davis and Charles Sumner in a joint effort to drive the Republican party from power and hand over the government to the practical control of those who recently sought to destroy it.

It is of no avail for you to take refuge behind the Republican record of Horace Greeley. Conceding, for the sake of argument, as I do not in fact believe, that Horace Greeley would remain firm in his Republican principles, he would be powerless against the Congress that would come into power with him in the event of his election. We have had a recent and striking illustration, in the case of Andrew Johnson, of the inability of the President to enforce a policy, or even a measure, against the will of Congress. What more power would there be in Horace Greeley to enforce the Republican policy against a Democratic Congress than there was in Andrew Johnson to enforce the Democratic policy against a Republican Congress? And besides, Horace Greeley has already, in his letter of acceptance, taken ground practically against the Republican doctrine, so often enforced by yourself, of the duty of the National Government to secure the rights of every citizen to the protection of life, person and property. In Mr. Greeley's letter of accepting the Cincinnati nomination he pleases every Ku-Klux villian in the South by repeating the Democratic cant about loyal self-government, and inveighing in good rebel parlance against centralization, and finally declaring that there shall be no federal subversion of the internal policy of the several States and municipalities, but that each shall be left free to enforce the rights and promote the well being of its inhabitants by such means as the judgment of its own people shall prescribe. The meaning of all this, in plain English, is that no matter how the colored citizens of the South may be abused, wronged and oppressed, Congress shall not interfere for their protection, but leave them to the tender mercies of local self-government administered by white rebels. Do you, as a friend to the colored man, approve this position of Mr. Greeley?

You cannot forget, Mr. Sumner, how often during the late session of Congress you conferred with me in regard to the possibility of having your civil rights bill passed by the House. It was introduced by your personal friend, Mr. Hooper, and nothing prevented its passage by the House, except the rancorous and factious hostility of the Democratic members. If I have correctly examined the Globe, Democratic members, on seventeen different occasions resisted the passage of the civil rights bill by the parliamentary process known as "filli-bustering." They would not even allow it to come to a vote. Two intelligent colored members from South Carolina, Elliot and Rainey, begged of the Democratic side of the house to merely allow the civil rights bill to be voted on, and they were answered with a denial so absolute that it amounted to a scornful jeer of the rights of the colored man. And now you lend your voice and influence to the re-election of these Democratic members, who are co operating with you in support of Mr. Greeley.

Do you not know, Mr. Sumner, and will you not, as a candid man acknowledge that with these men in power in Congress the rights of the colored men are absolutely sacrificed, so far as these rights depend on federal legislation. Still further, the rights of the colored men in this country are secured, if secured at all, by the great constitutional amendments, the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth. To give these amendments full scope and effect, legislation by Congress is imperatively required, as you have so often and so eloquently demonstrated. But the Democratic party are on record in a most conspicuous manner against any legislation on the subject, and it was only in the month of February last, that my colleague, Mr. Peters, offered a resolution in the House of Representatives, affirming the validity of the constitutional amendments, and of such reasonable legislation of Congress as may be necessary to make them in their letter and spirit most effectual. This resolution, very mild and guarded as you will see, was adopted by 124 yeas to 58 nays. Only eight of the yeas were Democrats. All the nays were Democrats. The resolution of Mr. Peters was followed, a week later, by one offered by Mr. Stevenson, of Ohio, as follows:

Resolved, That we recognize as valid and binding all existing laws passed by Congress for the enforcement of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments of the Constitution of the United States, and for the protection of citizens in their rights under the Constitution as amended.

On the vote upon the resolution there were 107 yeas to 65 nays. All the yeas were Republicans, and they are now unanimous in support of General Grant. All the nays were Democrats, who are now equally unanimous in support of Mr. Greeley.

It is idle to affirm, as some Democrats did in the resolution offered by Mr. Brooks, of New York, that "these amendments are valid parts of the Constitution," so long as the same men, on the same day, voted that the provisions of these amendments should not be enforced by Congressional legislation.—The amendments are but sounding brass and tinkling cymbals to the colored man until Congress makes them effective and practical.

Nay, more. If the rights of the colored man are to be left to the legislation of the Southern States without congressional intervention, he would under a Democratic administration be deprived of the right of suffrage in less than two years, and he would be very lucky if he escaped some form of chattel slavery or peonage. And in proof of this danger I might quote volumes of wisdom and warning from the speeches of Charles Sumner. When, therefore, you point out to colored men that their rights will be safe in the hands of the Democratic party, you delude and mislead them. I do not say wilfully, but none the less really. The small handful of Republicans, compared with the whole mass, who unite with yourself, and Mr. Greeley, in going over to the Democratic party, cannot leaven that lump of political unsoundness, even if you preserve your own original principles in tact.

The administration of Mr. Greeley, therefore, should he be elected, will be in whole and in detail a Democratic administration, and you would be compelled to go with the current, or repent and turn back, when too late to amend the evil you had done.

Your argument that Horace Greeley does not become a Democrat by receiving Democratic votes, illustrating it by an analogy of your own election to the Senate, is hardly pertinent. The point is not what Mr. Greeley will become personally, but what will be the complexion of the great legislative branch of the Government, with all its vast and controlling power. You know very well, Mr. Sumner, that if Mr. Greeley is elected President, Congress is handed over to the control of the party who have persistently denied the rights of the black man. What course you will pursue toward the colored man is of small consequence, after you have transferred the power of the government to his enemy.

The colored men of this country are not as a class enlightened, but they have wonderful instincts, and when they read your letter they will know that a great crisis arises in their fate. You have deserted them! Charles Sumner, co-operating with Jefferson Davis, is not the same Charles Sumner they hitherto idolized, any more than Horace Greeley, cheered to the echo in Tammany Hall, is the same Horace Greeley whom Republicans have hitherto trusted. The black man of this country will never be ungrateful for what you have done for them in the past, nor in the bitterness of their hearts will they ever forget that, heated and blinded by personal hatred of one man, you turned your back on the millions before whom in past years you have stood as a shield and bulwark of defense.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

James G. Blaine.

It was Greeley who wanted every Irishman and German coming to this country, to reside here twenty-one years before voting. We presume he would substitute twenty-one hours under present circumstances.

GENERAL ALLEN.

In reference to the various allegations of the Democratic press against the Republican candidate for Auditor General, the Warren Mail says: "So far as General Allen is concerned we know there is no foundation for these repeated charges. He is the representative of no ring or clique. He was fairly and squarely nominated on his own popularity and fitness for the place. He appealed to the people and the people placed him in nomination. With them and for them he proposes to stand through evil or good report, through treachery of false friends if he must, sustaining the banner of the Republican party in sunshine or storm. If through defection the party goes down in October, of course he may share its fate. A defeat under such circumstances will be far more honorable to the candidates than to those who bring it upon us. But of one thing we can assure his opponents, Gen. Allen will equal his full party vote at home and and probably more! He has more personal magnetism, and will command more votes on his own account than any man on our ticket or the other. He has a few personal enemies, it is true, mainly because he won't prove false to the friends who have served him, but he will more than make up for this among Democrats who like him, and above all like to see fair play. Reared among us and working his way through and over many obstacles to an honorable position among men, they know his sympathy with the laboring classes and his fidelity to his convictions and their interests. They don't propose to join in any body's persecution. No poor or humble man ever appealed to him in vain. We could fill a column with what men tell us of his personal kindness, if it were necessary. But it isn't. The people of the State at large already understand it.

FRED. DOUGLASS'S REPLY TO SENATOR SUMNER'S LETTER.

Washington, August. 7.—Fredrick Douglass, in his paper, the New National Era, of the 7th inst., notices Senator Sumner's letter announcing his intention to support Greeley and advising the colored people to do the same thing, as follows: "Aside from his purpose to support the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, Mr. Sumner has added but little of either fact of argument to his previous utterances. To his fierce, bitter, sweeping and unqualified impeachments of Ulysses S. Grant we oppose the sober, unimpassioned and just record in other columns, setting forth General Grant's military and political course towards the colored people of the United States during the last ten years. We appeal from the power of invective to the power of simple, unadorned truth. Judged by this standard, Ulysses S. Grant stands triumphantly vindicated as a wise, firm and consistent friend of the just rights of man, without regard to race, color, or previous condition of servitude, and every way worthy of the support of all colored citizens and of the whole nation.

An Important Decison to Distillers.—The Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue, decides that the act of depositing distilled spirts in ware houses, determines the rate of tax revenue. Officials and distillers will understand by this ruling that if distilled spirits were deposited in warehouses before the new act took effect, they will pay the old rate on withdrawal; if deposited after the new law took effect they will pay on withdrawal the new rate of seventy cents per gallon.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

Whereas the Hon. Charles A. Mayer, President of the court of Common Pleas, in the 25th Judicial District, consisting of the counties of Centre, Clinton and Clearfield, and the Honorable W W Love and the Honorable Henry Dopp, Associate Judges in Centre county, having issued their precept, bearing date the 30th day of July, A. D., 1872, to me directed for holding a court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery and Quarter Sessions of the Peace in Bellefonte, for the county of Centre, and to commence on the 4th Monday of August next, being the 26th day of August 1872, and to continue two weeks.

Notice is therefore hereby given to the Coroner' Justice of the Peace, Aldermen and Constables of the said county of Centre, that they be then and there in their proper persons, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, with their records, inquisitions, examinations, and their own remembrances, to do those things which to their office appertains to be done, and those who are bound in recognizances to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the Jail of Centre county, be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Given under my hand, at Bellefonte, the 30th day of July in the year of our Lord, 1872, and in the ninety-fourth year of the Independence of the United States.

D. W. WOODRING, Sheriff.

A NEW CANDIDATE FOR PUBLIC FAVOR.

THE NEW VICTOR SEWING MACHINE!

THE NEW VICTOR SEWING MACHINE!

BY ONE WHO KONWS:

A good sewing Machine I long have sought,
And tried them all but found it not,
Until the New Victor it came out,
And now I have one without a doubt.

It runs so easy and sews so nice,
I would not be without it for any price.
Its self-setting needle is so neat,
And everything else is most complete.

It sews through thin, it sews through thick,
And when you sew it never sticks,
So when you sew, you have no trouble—
I'd have a VICTOR if it's price were double.

READ! READ! READ!

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL WHO ARE IN WANT OF A SEWING MACHINE.

The New Sewing Machine VICTOR has not its equal in the world for family sewing. It is made of the finest material and of most perfect finish, and no pains or expense is spared to make the Victor Sewing Machine, in all its points, fitted to meet the wants of every family in the land.

TWELVE GOOD REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BUY THE VICTOR:

1.—It is the only Lock-Stitch Machine that has its needle Self-Setting.
2.—All lost motion can be readily taken up in all its parts.
3.—The needle being Straight, and Self-Setting, much of the perplexity and trouble to new beginners is avoided, as the needle cannot be set wrong.
4.—It has a positive Thread Controller and Tension, which enables it to sew with equal precision, from the most delicate texture to the heaviest material.
5.—It uses with equal facility Silk, Linen, or Cotton Thread.
6.—It uses the same size thread on the under as on the upper side, and sews across the heaviest seam, or from one to many thicknesses of cloth, without change of needle, tension or thread.
7.—There are no springs or cog wheels to break and get out of order.
8.—It is the simplest and strongest family sewing machine of all the varieties now in use.
9.—Every motion is positive, and it runs light and easy.
10.—The shuttle is carried on an independent table, which prevents its wearing out, and at the same time does away with oiling, thus avoiding greasing the work.
11.—It is simple in its construction, and the most inexperienced person can operate and regulate it.
12.—Its price is as low as any other first-class machine, and should be tried by all who want a good, reliable machine. This new machine can be seen at the large Ware Room, where all are invited to call and see it operate. Having confidence that the Victor will meet with public favor, we are willing, when parties desire to purchase, to send it to their homes on trial, with complete instructions how to use it. Every Machine is Warranted. Traveling Agents Wanted.

MRS. IRWIN'S BUILDING, ALLEGHENY St., BELLEFONTE, PA.

MUTUAL
Fire Insurance.

The Mutual Plan guarantees to the mutually insured the greatest security for the least possible cost. The premium notes are the capital. On this no dividends are paid to the stockholders, but it is simply assessed to pay deficiencies arising after the payment of losses and expenses, which in the COLUMBIA INSURANCE COMPANY, during the total 12½ years of its existence, have averaged but 6¼ per centum upon the premium note, being lower than the rates paid in the best solvent stock companies during the same period of time. In insuring at stock rates, the insured must pronounce to himself that he pays every year enough—1st. To form an accumulated fund for emergencies; 2d. To pay large dividends to the capital invested in the Company: 3d. Runs the risk of a "Chicago fire" coming and whiping his Company out of existence. In a Mutual Company he keeps his own reserve in hand until needed, and pays no dividend to capitalists. The mutually insured, being themselves the capitalists, look after the business, its character and its agents in all places, thus protecting each other. For Insurances or Agencies, address

The Worth of a Local Newspaper.

Something of the kind as the following, which we copy from an exchange we have more than once written for our own readers, but perhaps never so forcibly as it is presented below: "Does it ever for an instant occur to the business man that it is his solemn duty to support the local press of his neighborhood? What is it but the well conducted newspaper that makes his city or town? What constantly and gratuitously advertises it to the world as a place of interest or importance? What daily or weekly makes known to the whole earth the simple fact that such a place as where he strives to gain a livelihood has existence in the atlas? It is a local paper. Now, we venture to say that not one-tenth part of the business people of any city in the country spend any money in the way of judicious advertising. True they take the paper, but it is not because they feel any duty devolving upon them to award it support. Their subscriptions are measurably of no account. If advertisements were not given by others the paper would cease to live despite the payment of subscribers. Show us a local paper well filled with advertisements and we will at once take stock in the enterprise and business tack of the people who live where the journal is published. The outside world judges more of the places by the newspaper it publishes than from any other sign. It is therefore a matter of great moment that the local journal of the city, town and village should be well supported, for it above all other things contributes to the general prosperity."

A Father's Advice to a Bride.

Said a young husband whose business speculations were unsuccessful, "My wife's silver tea-set the bridal gift of a rich uncle, doomed me to financial ruin. It involved a hundred unexpected-expenses, which in trying to meet made me the bankrupt I am." His experience is the experience of many others, who, less wise, do not know what is the goblin of the house, working its destruction. A sagacious father of great wealth exceedingly mortified his daughter by ordering it to be printed on her wedding cards. "No presents except, those adapted to an income of $1,000." Said he. "You must not expect to begin life in the style I am able, by many years of labor to indulge, and I know of nothing which will tempt you to try it more than the well intentioned but pernicious gifts of rich friends." Such advice to a daughter is timely. If other parents would follow the same plan, many young men would be spared years of incessant toil and anxiety; they would not find themselves on the downward road, because their wives had worn all of their salary, or expended it on the appointments of the house. The fate of the poor man who found a linch pin, and felt himself obliged to make a carriage to fit it, is the rate of the husband who finds his bride in possession of gold and silver valuables, and no large income to support the owners in gold and silver style.

THE Lehigh Register remarks: "We never saw the Republicans more determined than they are this year. The feeling extends through the rank and file, and men who have taken little interest in politics for moeys ears, are anxious to do all they can to elect Grant and Wilson and secure another four years of prosperity for our country."

BEAUTIES often die old maids. They set such a value on themselves, that they don't find a purchaser before the market is closed.

WE are only competent to judge another's conduct when we thoroughly comprehend the motives that prompted his actions.

LIFE, like war, is a series of mistakes; and he is the best Christian who wins the most splendid victories by the retrieval of mistakes.

IT is the best and safest rule to walk by, to be severe and right in judging ourselves, and to be very meek and charitable to our brethern.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

Below will be found the Resolutions adopted by the convention which placed in nomination Gen John F. Hartranft, Hon. Ulysses Mercur, Gen. Harrison Allen and the entire State Ticket. The Resolutions were written by that clear headed and efficient Republican—Russel Errett, Esq., and have the true ring. Republicans, workingmen and all honest Democrats, can safely stand upon this platform. Let them be carried out in good faith and there need be no fears entertained in regard to the salvation and perpetuity of the government either State or national:

1. That we reaffirm our devotion to the principles of the Republican party, and our belief that the continued existence of that party is necessary to the maintenance and success of those principles. The grand and fundamental idea of the equality of all men in political rights is not professed by any other party, and can be sustained faithfully only by those who are sincerely committed to it.

2. That the adoption of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution of the United States has not been sufficiently acquiesced in by all to render certain and secure their permanent incorporation in that instrument, and hence the administration of the government can safely be entrusted only to that party which is heartily, and beyond question, committed to them, and the policy necessary to put them into successful operation.

2. That we are now, more than ever, called to sustain the policy of national protection to American industry. If the laborer is worthy of his hire, and a fair day's work entitles the worker to a fair day's pay, we must continue to throw the protecting arm of the government around those who toil for their daily bread. The protective policy alone makes labor contented and capital secure. It renders employment certain, and pay ample and satisfactory; whilst free trade means that our laborers and mechanics must either work for lower wages or that our factories should be closed through foreign competition, and the workingmen of the country deprived of employment.

4. That the public lands belong to the people, and should be reserved for the people. We, therefore, pronounce most decidedly against any further appropriation of the public lands in behalf of corporations or individuals. All lands not sold according to law should be open to preemption and actual settlement.

5. That we demand a continued adherence to the policy hitherto pursued, under Republican auspices, in our State and in the nation, of a steady and gradual reduction of the public debt. The interests of the people require that the most rigid economy should be practiced in the administration of both the Nation and the State governments, and that taxes should be reduced in both as rapidly as is consistent with the honorable maintenance of the public credit, and the certain extinguishment of all the public debt.

6. That we are earnestly in favor of the earliest possible removal of the duties on tea and coffee, and urge the prompt passage of the bill for that purpose now before Congress.

7. That we heartily approve of the act of Gen. Grant in giving a trial to the plan of civil service reform. We demand that the plan, or any other that may be substituted in its place as better, shall have a fair and unembarrassed trial, that every effort shall be made to secure competent men for public service, and that honesty and incorruptibility shall be deemed qualifications as essential as competency and intelligence.

8. That the Republican party has given full evidence during the past eleven years of its ability to administer the government honestly, faithfully and successfully. It has, within that time, maintained the honor of our National flag at home and abroad; preserved the Union from disruption and restored it in its integrity; secured to all classes and conditions of men the rights given to them by their Maker, and having proclaimed liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof, has given to that proclamation the full effect to which it was entitled; and we therefore, in its name, claim from the people a continuance of their confidence, and fearlessly challenge their scrutiny into its acts.

9. That we point with pride to the record of Gen. Grant's administration of the National Government. Not only has the weight of internal taxation been almost wholly removed from the people's shoulders, but three hundred millions of the national debt have been paid off—a result never before attained by any other people under like circumstances, and for which we are indebted to the rigid honesty, strict economy and sterling integrity which the President has brought to the administration of a national affairs.

10. That we present his name for renomination to the Presidency, confident that the people will again rally to the support of the man who so nobly fought their battles; who, under the guidance through its struggle to maintain its existence, and who has since so successfully administered the affairs of the government as to command general admiration, at home and abroad.

11. That we will stand by the government in the foreign policy so firmly marked out and adhered to by President Grant. The honor of the nation, we feel, is safe in his hands, and the flag under which he never suffered defeat, will not be dishonored while he is kept in the front.

12. That we congratulate the people of Pennsylvania on the final accomplishment of the call for a convention to revise and amend the Constitution of the State and we earnestly urge upon our friends to see that delegates are chosen in their respective districts committed to the policy of incorporating in that instrument a clear and decisive prohibition of special legislation.

13 That we hereby declare our opposition to every effo . to withdraw from the sinking fund of the Commonwealth, either by substitution, exchange or otherwise, any of the bonds, securities or moneys now pledged to it, and through it to the payment of the public debt of the Commonwealth, and our inflexible determination to preserve the same, inviolably, for the fulfillment of the Commonwealth's obligations.

14. That the oil producing, mining, lumbering and manufacturing interest of the State require protection from the efforts of dangerous combinations, and that such laws should be enacted by the General Assembly of this Commonwealth as will protect said interest, both in their development and the transportation of their productions to market.

15. That the thanks of our party are due to Governor John W. Geary, under whose lead our principles have twice been successfully vindicated in Pennsylvania; the State debt has been reduced during his administration; our soldiers orphans have been carefully cherished and educated; and our laws have been efficiently and wisely enforced. Under the necessity of parting with him as Governor, in conformity with the Constitution of the State, Governor Geary carries with him in his retirement the heartfelt wishes of its people for his future prosperity and happiness.

16. That we present with peculiar pride and especial confidence of their success, the names of Gen. John F. Hartranft for Governor, Ulysses Mercur for Supreme Judge, Gen. Harrison Allen for Auditor General, and the gentlemen this day named for delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention. They are all men worthy of an active and ardent support at the hands of the Republican party, and we call upon our friends throughout the State to rally as one man to secure their triumphant election.

17. That the President of this Convention, in connection with the candidates this day nominated for State officers, appoint the chairman and one Secretary of the State Central Committee, and that the State Committee be made up on the basis adopted last year, and the two years preceeding.

To Debilitated Persns,
To Dispeptics,
To Sufferers from Liver Complaint,
To those having no Appetite,
To those with broken down Constitutins
To Nervous People,
To Children Wasting Away,
To any with debilitated digesti'e Organs

Or suffering with any of the following Symptoms, which indicate Disordered Stomach or Liver.

such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach. Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

Hoofland's German Bitters.

A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the pure Juices, or VITAL PRINCIPLE OF ROOTS, HERBS, and BARKS, (or, as medicinally termed, Extracts,) the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore in one Bottle of this Bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons or ordinary mixtures. The Roots, &c., used in this Bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific Chemist, and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, when they compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this Bitters is free from the objections urged against all others: no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases when some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the Tonic properties of the Bitters. Each bottle of the tonic contains one bottle of the Bitters, combined with pure SANTA CRUZ RUM, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the bitters is overcome forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasant to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the Bitters. The price of the Tonic is $1,50 per Bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but is it not better to pay a little more and have a good article? A medicinal preparation should contain none but the best ingredients; and they who expect to obtain a cheap compound, and be benefittad by it, will most certainly be cheated.

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania at present Member of Congress from Pennsylvania, writes:

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1871.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in case of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

HON, JAS. THOMPSON, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1867.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my own experience of it.
Yours, with respect, JAS. THOMPSON.

HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1, 1868.

I have found by experience that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a very good tonic, relieving dyspeptic symptoms almost directly.
GEORGE SHARSWOOD

HON. JAS. M. WOOD, Ex-Mayor of Williamsport, Pa.

I take great pleasure in recommending "Hoofland's German Tonic" to any one who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia. I had the Dyspepsia so badly it was impossible to keep any food on my stomach, and I became so week, as not to be able to walk half a mile. Two bottles of Tonic effected a perfect cure. JAMES M. WOOD.

Or Wasting away of the Body.
REMEMBER
THAT HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES

Are the medicines you require to purify the Blood, excite the torpid Liver to healthy action, and to enable you to pass safely through any hardships or exposure.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
PODOPHYLLIN,
Or Substitue for Mercury Pills.
TWO PILLS A DOSE.
The Most Powerful, Yet Innocent Vegetable Cathartic Known.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these Pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the Liver, Stomach and Bowels all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the Alcoholic Extract of Mandrake, which is by many times more powerful, acting and searching than the Mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the Liver, cleaning it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of Mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases, in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They NEVER FAIL.

In cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and extreme costiveness, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic should be used in connection with the Pills. The tonic effect of the Bitters or Tonic builds up the system. The Bitters or Tonic purifies the Blood, strengthens the Nerves, REGULATES the Liver, and gives strength, energy and vigor.

Keep your Bowels active with the Pills, and tone up the system with Bitters or Tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

Recollect that it is DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES that are so universally used and highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. ## Miscellaneous.

VINEGAR BITTERS

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain longun well, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual on the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Typesetters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS twice a week.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposits) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safe-guard in cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassfull. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef-steak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take out-door exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, August 14th, 1872.

Lodge Directory.

Bayard Post, No. 90, G. A. R., meets every Monday evening, at 7½ o'clock, in Bush's Arcade.

Bellefonte Council, No. 270, O. U. A. M., meets every Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, in Bush's Arcade.

Bellefont Lodge, No. 190, K. of P., meets every Friday evening, at their hall, in Loeb, May & Loeb's building, Allegheny street.

Centre Lodge, No. 153, I. O. O. F., meets every Thursday evening at the Odd Fellow's hall. Degree meetings first Saturday of each month.

Minerva (Rebekah Degree) Lodge, No. 53, meets on the Saturday night next to and immediately before the full of the moon of each month, in Odd Fellow's hall.

Bellefonte Encampment, No. 72, I. O. O. F., meets at the Odd Fellow's hall, on the second and fourth Mondays of every month.

Bellefonte Lodge, No. 268, A. Y. M., meets on Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, on or before each full moon, in Bush's Arcade.

Constans Commandery, No. 33, K. T., meets the second Tuesday evening of each month, in Bush's Arcade.

CONVENTION.—The Democratic County Convention met yesterday; but as we went to press before the convention adjourned, we could not give the proceedings.

EXAMINATIONS.—The teachers examinations in Bellefonte on Friday last, were exceedingly good, a high honor not only to themselves, but to the County Superintendent.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Samuel Belford that excellent Dentist, of whom we have so frequently spoken, will be found at his office, over the drug store of Messrs. Rankin & Co., for three weeks. Persons wishing dental operations will do well to call on him.

LONGEVITY.—John Shuey, aged 84 years, and Christiana, his wife, aged 83 enjoyed the pleasures of connubial bliss for 62 years. They have four children, two sons and two daughters. No death ever occurred in the family until the 28th day of May last, when Mrs. Shuey, the wife and the mother, died, aged 83 years and 8 months. This family resided in Harris township, this county, where the father and children still reside.

PROSPECTING.—Peter Kerlin who resides in the Loop, this county, is prospecting for coal near Bechdol's Gap in the Seven Mountains, on the route of the contemplated Rail Road from Bellefonte to Lewistown. We learn that he is drifting into the mountain, and, at a distance of 20 feet has found something that resembles coal, and burns, leaving about half the bulk in ashes. We have specimens of the coal at our office. Mr. Kerlin expects to find coal in abundance.

Jasper Brooks, Mrs E Blem, Miss Susey Cinley, George B Drake, Nanna G Davis, Wm Flora, Morris Furey, Wm Griffith, Joseph Gestler, C W Hunter, C F Harras, Henry Hufman, Miss Jennie K Koogle, Augustus Logan, Jacob Laird, James A Menaul, Mrs Mary J Miles—2, Mrs Mary Miller, Miss Ellen Nancy, Mrs Elizzie Neiman, Miss Flora Pennington, John Swab, John Tonner—2, Michael Ulrich, Annie Williams, Mrs Rachel Walker, Mrs Maggie Young—2.

TRAIN DELAYED.—The passenger train due at this place from Tyrone at 8:14, P. M., on Monday last, did not arrive until 2 o'clock, A. M., on Tuesday. The cause of the delay was the destruction of a bridge near Martha Furnace. A water spout in that locality caused a flood in the creek, and the destruction of the bridge. Construction trains were run from Roland and Milesburg, conveying lumber from the above named places to repair the bridge sufficiently to permit the train to pass over. No injury to cars or passengers.

COUNTY NORMAL.—This institution, located at Centre Hall, is in a flourishing condition. Sixty students are already in attendance, and others are arriving daily. George O. Boal, of this place, gave an Elocutionary Entertainment on Tuesday, the 6th inst. It gave general satisfaction. Mr. Boal, who is a resident of this town, is, we think, the best elocutionist of his age to whom we have ever listened.

D. F. Fortney, Esq., lectured on Thursday evening, the 8th inst. His lecture is reported to us as having been very creditable. A lecture was delivered by Rev. D. M. Wolf, on last evening, the report of which we have not heard but everybody knows that it would be, or was a first class lecture.

For the REPUBLICAN.

AT a meeting of the School Board on Monday last, the following teachers were elected to take charge of our public schools for the ensuing year. For the first grade, and principal of all the schools, Prof. D. H. Hastings; the third grade, Miss Beckie McGinley; the fifth grade, Miss Jennie Morrison; the sixth grade, Miss Anna McCaffra; the seventh grade, Mrs. R. A. Ward; the eighth grade, Mrs. G. M. Perkins, leaving the second and fourth grades yet to be filled. We think the Board has made wise selections thus far, and if they fill the two remaining grades as discreetly as they have the others, we will have a corps of teachers, that will ensure a most prosperous school year, and should command the support and hearty co-operation of our people.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—A meeting of the Republicans of Bellefonte was held in the wigwam, on Saturday evening, August 10th, at 8 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by Geo. M. Yocum, Esq., who stated its object to be the preliminary work of organizing a Grant & Wilson club. On motion, R. C. Curtin was chosen Chairman, and Jno. G. Love, Secretary.

On motion, the Chair appointed a committee of six—two from each ward in the borough, composed of the following named gentlemen: Geo. M. Yocum, S. D. Gray, John T. Johnston, A. J. Cook, J. H. McClure and L. A. Miller, to report officers for the permanent organization of the club, at the next meeting. The Chair, on motion, appointed James H. Rankin, Daniel Rhoads and H. D. Yeager, a committee to draft a Constitution and By-Laws for the club, to report at the next meeting. Addresses were made by Messrs. G. M. Yocum, and James Milliken, in which the issues of the campaign were clearly defined, and the hypocracy and deception of the Democracy exposed,—and showed that continued prosperity and progress, and the permanent triumph of republican principles, were to be secured and perpetuated only in the lines of the regular Republican organization, and in the election of Grant and Wilson. The meeting was well attended, and an anvious feeling for energetic work prevailed. In short, it was an auspicious opening of the campaign in Centre. On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet in the Wigwam, on Friday evening, August 16th, at 8 o'clock.

JNO. G. LOVE,

CHOLERA INFANTUM.—During the past two weeks, says the Harrisburg Telegraph, a large number of children have died in this city from cholera infantum, and as there are a number of children suffering with the disease, a little medical advice at this time may prove beneficial. Here is what an experienced physician says on the subject:

We should have incompletely discharged our duty did we not say a word for those little children "from two years old and under," the frightful number of deaths from among whom during the last few weeks must have affected every heart. And here, again, we wish distinctly to state, that these remarks are made for those who are not under medical supervision, but who, from scanty means, or other causes, too often do not claim the physician's care until his science and art are powerless. The suggestions we offer are few, and, we hope are practical.

The surest mode of averting cholera infantum is by attention to the diet of a child, and there is no food to be compared with that which nature has furnished the mother. But it must be healthy milk, and the mother can best give such to her child by personal cleanliness, by frequent bathing of herself, and by the avoidance of a fretful or anxious temper. The child itself should be bathed daily, or oftener, with water, or, what will be found very refreshing to the child, with whisky and water. This is far better than giving the child brandy and whisky by the mouth, and it may be best done with a soft, surgical sponge, as it is called, which can be had at the apothecary's at a trifling cost.

For the REPUBLICAN.

HUSTON TWP., Aug. 8, 1872.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:

Locals are scarce as June bugs in January. No murders, no riots, nobody hurt, no run-away matches, nobody married at home, and but few courting. Nobody dead. One small fight at Julian. I saw one of the belligerents with his head tied up. A few busy bodies industriously circulating scandalous reports to the damage of the characters of a few others, in order to revenge a personal pique, and to justify themselves for abuses dealt out without measure to certain individuals for many years. Friends, beware! This is dangerous pastime, and you will get your reward in due season. The political caldron is beginning to simmer. The situation in Huston, from present appearances, is about as follows; the Democrats will poll a full vote for Buckalew, then disband and go home. If they are to be relied on, they will not vote for Greeley. Of this the most of them have unequivocally assured me. We will see when the time comes. LOCUST.

TRUTH.—One of the errors into which many old established business houses are apt to fall, is that there is no necessity for advertising them. Such a theory would have answered well enough half a century since, but the day has gone by when a business man can afford to rely upon the long-standing and respectability of his house. This is a progressive age. Nearly everybody reads the newspapers and public opinion is made up by what is printed there, whether it be in the form of an editorial or an advertisement.

BREAKING.—Somebody wrote to the editor of a paper in Norristown to ask how he would "break an ox?" "If only one ox, a good way would be to hoist him, by means of a long chain attached to his tail, to the top of a pole forty feet from the ground. Then hoist him by a rope tied to his horns to another pole. Then descend on his back a five ton pile driver, and if that don't break him, let him start a country newspaper and trust people for subscription. One of the two ways will do it sure."

[For the REPUBLICAN].

TUB RACE.—On Saturday last, in accordance with previous announcement, our citizens were favored with one of those rare and exceptional sportive entertainments, freighted with more real fun, and provocative of more hearty laughter, than it has ever before been the pleasure of Bellefonte to experience. It was a Tub Race. At 3 o'clock, P. M., large crowds were seen grouped within sight of the Bush House facade, where was manifested considerable interest and excitement. The procession was soon formed, Marshal Wilkinson, of Bush House fame, taking the van; following him, the Judges, who were Messrs. D. H. Hastings, Wm. P. Duncan and F. P. Green; then the Cornet Band, with music fine. The next in order were the competitors, arrayed in varied sailor's garb, each mounted with a tub of no mean proportions, most conspicuons of whom was our enthusiastic sportsman and merchant, Thomas Burnside; then followed, despite the rain that was pouring down its liquid diamonds so thick and fast, as to evidence the most determined drenching intention, thousands of spectators whose enthusiasm didn't seem to moisten or dampen worth a cent. The procession reaching the dock at the Rail Road bridge over Spring creek, just above the R. R. depot, the roll was called, when the following competitors responded, ready for the race: D. F. Ebberts, W. L. Malin, Thomas Burnside, J. W. Gephart, O. L. Meek, Jas. Furey, John Sourbeck, Joseph Thomas, Andrew Morrison, H. A. Williams, Dr. J. C. McEntyre, J. N. Gordon and W. B. Rankin. Judge Hastings then read the rules to the contestants, when they all launched their rather unmanageable barques, and jumped aboard. After all were fairly balanced, the Judge gave word, "go!" when a lively scene of capsizing ensued, bringing forth shouts of laughter from the two thousand spectators, who witnessed it. Burnside made the first dash ahead, shoulders and all under water, his feet and tub following after in order. Out of the thirteen, but four, Ebberts, Malin, Williams and Sourbeck, preserved their balance, and smoothly floated down the course. Ebberts distanced the rest, arriving at the line, plucking the apple, and winning the first prize,—a silver ice pitcher and salver,—before the others got there, and without getting wet. The distance, 140 yards; time of first race, four minutes, seven seconds. At a quarter of 4 o'clock, the tubs were again launched, cargoed with their precious live-freight, and the command given, when a scene similar to the first took place, Burnside making a dash excelling his first, equalled and quickly followed by a number of his sympathizing compeers. Ebberts again moved steadily ahead, followed closely by Malin, who gained on him, and when near the end came abreast with, and passed him, when the most intense excitement was exhibited by the crowd. Malin reached the line first, and grabbed for the apple, but, being farther under it than he thought, he missed it, and landed full length out into the stream. Sourbeck and Ebberts, being next, hovered around the goal for a minute or two, when Ebberts reached for the apple and plucked it, his barque, however, capsizing, and ejecting him into the water; he came ashore the winner of the second prize, being a fine gold-headed cane. Time, eight minutes and thirteen seconds. Malin should have been the winner of it, and would, had he been more deliberate in making his reach for the apple. Ebberts then retired from the list, and the remaining twelve tubs were again launched and the signal given, when they all started. Burnside, as usual, determined on pushing matters, dipped himself again. Malin this time took the lead, closely followed by James Furey, who, at one time was abreast with him, and would have passed him, but his barque dipped, and gave him a parting salute, from which he was unable to recover. Malin reached the line, and plucked the apple, winning the third prize, being a beautiful meerschaum pipe, in three minutes, and thirty-two seconds, being the best time made. The crowd and competitors assembled in front of the Bush House, where the Judges distributed, in a formal manner, the prizes. Mr. Ebberts, the winner of the first two, was presented with them by Geo. M. Yocum, Esq., in a very neat and appropriate address. Mr. Malin, the winner of the third prize, was piped in a very becoming and happy manner, by Jno. G. Love, Esq. During the whole entertainment, the Cornet Band discoursed elegant and lively airs. The affair was a grand success, and took place within seeing and laughing distance of the Bush House, and evinces that Wilkinson, who is a prince of hotelists, is also, when seconded by Burnside, one of the most successful "phunists" of the age, and can do more to make our people healthy and jolly, by affording them a good laugh occasionally, than any other fellow in all the town. Among the notables present to witness the tub race, were Geo. C. Wilkins, Esq., Superintendent of Tyrone Division P. R. R., of Tyrone, and Daniel D. Woods, Esq. They enjoyed the sport hugely, especially the latter, who became, so intensely interested that he came nigh running into the creek, several times during the race. The day was a real gala day for Bellefonte, and will long be remembered by our citizens as one of fun and pleasure. G.

A WHOLE FAMILY STRICKEM DOWN.—A remarkable case of numerous deaths in one family within a short period of time, is reported from Moore township, Northampton county. The stricken family was that of Paul Graver, and the father, mother, and six children died within about two months. The record was as follows: April 27, George Edwin Graver, aged 3 years, 11 months and 29 days; May 14, Susan Graver, the mother, aged 39 years, 6 months and 18 days; May 17, Amanda Carthouse Graver, aged 13 years and 2 months; May 19, Paul Graver, the father, 38 years, 9 months and 2 days. May 20, Matilda Graver, 7 years, 11 months and 27 days. May 24, Susan Malissa Graver, 2 years; 3 months and 18 days; and, on the same day, Jas. Israel Graver, in the house of his grandmother, aged 15 years, 10 months and 14 days; June 3, John Henry Graver, aged 5 years, 19 months and 11 days. There were two nephews in the house, one 11 and the other 10 years of age, who recovered, while the others died. We are indebted to Charles Rader, of this city, who was acquainted with the family, for this remarkable bill of mortality. Five of the family died of smallpox, and three with scarlet fever.—Williamsport Epitomist.

HOW TO GO WEST.—This is an enquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and from the great Burlington Route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Centre County, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

"This Line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R., Burlington, Iowa. no-28-4-mo.

PROMPT to time, comes along the August number of that pure and beautiful illustrated home paper—the People's Monthly, Pittsburgh, Pa. This number contains seven appropriate illustrations. The "Household" and "Boys and Girls'" departments are as full of interest as usual, while the original stories and sketches are fully up to the mark. This instalment of the serial "Old Fort Duquesne" is unusually touching. The description of the death, by the river-side, of the Old Naturalist, abounds in pathos. We are glad to testify to the sterling merit of this deserving Western enterprise. It should be in the homes of all all who have growing children to be instructed and entertained. Extraordinary inducements are now offered by it, both to subscribers and agents, male or female. Send for circular and sample. Good agents wanted in every neighborhood.

CENTRE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY'S SCHOLARSHIP IN THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE OF PENNSYLVANIA.—As from the report of the examining committee, it appears that the competitors for the scholarship, although promising boys, have failed in coming up to the requisitions necessary to enter the Freshman's Class, the examination has been adjourned to Friday, the 23rd day of August, inst., when competitors are again invited to present themselves at the College, for examination in the following branches: Orthography, Reading, Penmanship, Geography, (Political and Mathematical) English Grammar, Mental and Written Arithmetic, and Elementary Algebra to Quadratics.

JAMES CALDER,
Prest. of the Agr'l Col. of Penn'a.

BALLOU'S MAGAZINE FOR SEPTEMBER. The September number of Ballou's Magazine is one that should be read by all classes, for it is so good that when once taken up no one wishes to put it down until the last page is perused. It is full of stories, adventures, poetry, fun, engravings, and not a line in it but contains information. There is no serial in this country that will compare with it when price is considered. Address, Thomes & Talbot, 63 Congress Street, Boston.

THE largest and best stock of Sole Leather, Calf Skins, Shoe Findings, &c., ever brought to Bellefonte, have just been received and are for sale at the Shoe Store of Graham & Son, on Bishop street, next door to the store of C. D. Keller. Call and examine; our prices are reasonable.

COUNTERFEITS.—There are many bogus five cent pieces in circulation. One kind closely resembles the genuine nickel, but may be easily detected by the inverted N in the words "cent" and "united," while the other letters are not uniform in size. Another kind has a leaden hue and indistinct letters, which at first sight reveals its bogus character.

GREELEY, BUCKALEW AND THE REBELS.

The report of Holcombe (says the Philadelphia Bulletin) shows how the rebel agents in Canada were in negotiation in 1861 with Horace Greeley, C. R. Buckalew, Jeremiah Black, James C. Vandyke and other prominent Democrats, either to bring about a peace disgraceful to the country and destructive of the Union, or to excite a revolution in the Northern States. The exact part taken in the negotiations by each of the individuals named is not stated. But it is a fact that they met or corresponded with the traitors, and that they were encouraged by what was told to them to expect the complete success of their plans.

This extraordinary confirmation of the suspicions that were entertained for a long time about these Northern traitors come very aptly, when some of them are before the people as candidates for high offices. Greeley and Buckalew are nominees of the Democrats, one for the Presidency and the other for the Governorship of Pennsylvania. Let the people, who suffered and lost so much by the war, and who would have lost still more if the plots had succeeded, bear this in mind in the canvass.—Let them remember that Greeley and Buckalew were in secret consultation with the paid agents of the rebel government in Canada, and that they gave them encouragement. Had Horace Greeley been President in 1864, instead of Abraham Lincoln, there is no doubt that he would have made a shameful peace, and let the Southern States go out of the Union, as he advised should be done in 1861. If he should be elected to the Presidency this year, he would do something equally shameful and ruinous to the country at the first opportunity that was offered.

As for Mr. Buckalew, every Pennsylvanian that was true to the Union should resolve to exert his whole strength to prevent the election of such a man as Governor. The record of his votes on war questions in the Senate, which has been published, is bad enough. But this proof of his connection with the rebel conspirators is damning.

REASONS FOR VOTING FOR GREELEY.

CHOICE QUOTATIONS FROM MR. SUMNER AND THE PITTSBURG POST.

[From the Pittsburg Post.]

Because Greeley has pledged himself to a course of action in harmony with the principles of the Democratic party, and in no other way than by his election can the people now have hope to see them once more in the ascendant.

Because we have ever since the war condemned the policy inaugurated by the dominant Radical party as inimical to the true interests of the Southern States, whilst Grant not only supports it but aggravates it by his military tyranny over them.

Because our course as a Democratic organ has been and is consistent. We favored the nomination of a straight ticket, believing that it could be carried. We believe so still; but our party has marked out this plan, and we intend to stand by the Democracy, and by Greeley and Brown.

[From Senator Sumner.]

The Democrats in joining Horace Greeley have changed simply as President Grant changed when he joined the Republicans, except that he was rewarded at once with a high office. The change is open. They may continue Democrats in name, but they are in reality Republicans by the same title that those who sustain Republican principles are Republicans. It is idle to say that Horace Greeley and the Republicans who nominated him are any less Republicans because the Democrats unite with them in support of chosen principles and the candidate who represents them. It is also idle to say that the election of Horace Greeley as President, with Gratz Brown as Vice President, both unchangeable Republicans, will be a return of the Democratic party to power. On the contrary, it will be the inauguration of Republican principles under the safe-guard of a Republican President and a Republican Vice President, with Democrats as avowed supporters.

A FIELD FOR SUMNER.—A report having gone forth that Mr. Sumner is about to take the stump for Greeley and Brown, the Pittsburg Commercial respectfully suggests that his first oratorical efforts should be made in West Virginia, where, at the election soon to be had on a new Constitution, recently framed by a convention composed principally of Democrats, one provision of which excludes colored people from ever holding office in that State. There is some danger that this clause, which is to be voted on separately from the rest of the Constitution, may be rejected by the people, unless in the meantime the Democratic argument shall be strongly enforced. The Senator having started out so well on his new career, and being, moreover, a man of decided gifts as a public speaker, it is suggested that his abilities might be very profitably employed in that State in calling attention to this latest convincing proof of the intention of the Democracy to place—see his last letter—"the equal rights of all under the safeguards of irresistible guarantees."

NOT SO VERY POPULAR.—From the subjoined, which we clip from the Genius of Liberty, the Democratic organ of Fayette county, it will be seen that Hon. Charles R. Buckalew, the Greeley, alias Liberal Republican candidate for Governor in this State, is not so mighty popular after all, as some of his partizans would fain make the people believe. The Genius says:

"The refusal of the Democratic paper to raise the Buckalew banner in Montour county, and the coolness with which some other Democratic papers have received the nomination—one of them, the Democratic Sentinel, published at his home—does not warrant the friends of Mr. Buckalew in claiming for him great popularity, even in his own party."

MARRIED.

In Lock Haven, Aug. 6, 1872, of consumption' Mrs. Lewis Merz, daughter of Catharine and Philip Graeff, aged 27 years, 2 months, 9 days and 1 hour.

On Friday, the 2d inst., William Aaron, infant son of Roland and Kate E. Richards.

"Oh, could I pierce that deep abyss,
Which parts the unseen world from this,
I would behold your seat in bliss,
Sweet babe!

"And can we mourn that God, in love,
Saw fit, so early, to remove
Your spirit to the courts above,
Sweet babe!

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HON. GEORGE SANDERSON,

Mayor of the City of Lancaster Pa., writes: "MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS is extensively known and used, and so successful are its curative powers that it has become as familiar as a Household Word and a necessary addition in the medical requirements of every family. Having used it myself and knowing others who have used it with beneficial results I can only add that in my opinion it is the best remedy ever introduced for the cure of the numerous ills to which flesh is heir."

HON. THADDEUS STEVENS M. C.,

Recommending MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS to a friend, pronounced it the most wonderful combination of medicinal herbs he ever saw.

☞ BY ONE OF THE LEADING PHYSICIANS of Philadelphia city.—A careful examination of mortuary statistics establishes the fact that one adult person out of every six dies of consumption, and so alarmingly is this disease gaining the ascendancy over all other ills to which flesh is heir, that its approach to one's immediate circle is regarded with perfect horror. If you will carefully examine the records of Materia Medica you will invariably discover that the general want of success in treating diseases has not been a deficiency of pathological knowledge of the functions affected, but of a suitable compound that would act upon the disease and all the sympathetic affections.

This want has at last been met in the Bitter Wine of Iron, prepared by the celebrated DR. E. F. KUNKLE, No 259 North Ninth street, Philadelphia. This excellent compound can be taken by persons with the most delicate stomach without any debilitating effect always giving strength and largely increasing the nervous energy of the patient. In all cases of pulmonary complaints it is admirably adapted to relieve the severity of the symptoms in the advanced stages of the disease, or to arrest it in its incipiency. If you want something that will give you strength, a good appetite, build up your constitution, and in place of moroseness and a lack of energy, give you a brisk and vigorous feeling, try Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. It has already received the meed of praise from thousands who have tested its virtues, and for many years maintained its reputation with unfaded popularity.

Price $1 per bottle. E. F. KUNKEL, Sole Proprietor, No. 259 North Ninth street, below Vine, Philadelphia.
